

Ergodicity

For an ergodic random process, the time average of each of its instances equals the ensemble mean of the process.

A process is ergodic if its autocovariance goes to zero as n or t goes to $\pm \infty$. Alternatively, it is ergodic if the fluctuation spectral density has no impulse at zero frequency.

From:

<https://www.jaeyoung.wiki/> - Jaeyoung Wiki

Permanent link:

<https://www.jaeyoung.wiki/kb:ergodicity>

Last update: 2024-04-30 04:03